

Please consider that we in rural America have few local stations to begin with and those have weak signals due to monetary constraints and not regulation. National stations are truly beneficial. Thank you for consideration.